

Group Name: _____

No.	Clue	Activity	Points	Done?
1	It took the nation 234 years to unite but it finally did. Go to the place where the last fight was fought. This place that is etched into the annals of history as that which gave the gift of unity to the people of Bhutan	Inside this place, spell out YIDDD with your bodies. Try to get an aerial shot.	8
2	When the night gets dark and peril looms at every corner, there is no one super hero we can call to. These gentlemen are the Superheroes of our city: keeping us safe at all costs. Go to the where you will find these Blue dressed servicemen	Meet one of these heros and wear his or her hat.	7
3	The founding fathers of the US feared, more than anything in the world, putting all the power into one person or a group of people. This institution was established along these ideals that power vested in one group of people with partisan thoughts will be the death of democracy. The second clue to this place you will find in a New Year's Eve	Make a human pyramid in front of this building	15
4	Relax. Have some fun! Where? This is the place where BBS all began. A group of youth like yourselves who called themselves NYAB "National Youth Association of Bhutan" started a radio broadcasting center and this very iconic bakery served as the focal for that.	Sing a love song to a random person here – be sure to get it on video!	8
5	"How is the new year treating you? Go to the place that is dedicated to 100 years of monarchy in Bhutan and there, you will find the largest sandbox in the country."	Come up and execute a dance to any song in their playlist. Video tape the dance. Must not be less than 2 minutes and all the members have to participate.	13
6	"Feeling charitable? Bring some offerings over to the structure that stands to remind us of the greatness of the 3rd King"	Offer something to the an elderly in this place	9

7	“The center of humanity lies at its very heart. New York has the Times Square, London the Trafalgar square. Find and go to the heart of Thimphu city.”	Get people’s reaction on a National Issue. Each team must stick to one. Points to be awarded based on creativity and quality of content. Videotape each response.	6 13
8	The conch is playing, but can you hear it? Go to the house of Bhutan’s loudest and farthest reaching conch.	Meet the press and snap a photo with a journalist.	5
9	No lights? No problem. This circle guides Bhutan with the help of a dancing serviceman.	Help the serviceman guide people and do his dance!	8
10	We’re always looking for signs in life. Bhutan is full of them.	Find a funny signboard	4
11	Dirty, dirty, dirty. This place might be the dirtiest place in Thimphu. But it’s also the “greenest”.	Collect some garbage in a bag and bring it here. Extra points for recyclable materials.	8
12	This isn’t China, but it’s got lots of sabji. It’s also got a bad reputation.	Go to one of the alleys here and pretend to sell sabji.	10
13	When there’s bad guys abusing power, and you don’t know what to do, who you gonna call??? Dasho Neten!	Re-enact a fight scene from a movie in front of this building.	11
14	What is white by day, red by night, full of monks and civil servants?	Salute the flag as the men and blue lower it at this time.	10
15	This man runs the city – literally.	Find this man and get a photo with him.	14
16	The world is your canvas. So are Thimphu’s buildings.	Find some cool street art.	4
17	Round, round, round, I get around, oooooo...thanks to these big Chinese imports, everyone can get around.	Take a ride on one of these with your whole group. Shout out “I love you” from the window.	7
18	These kind creatures can be found all over in various international organizations. They tend to be white.	Find one of these creatures in the national dress! Take a photo with them.	7
19	We all need love – so why don’t we share it!	Give a stranger a hug. Extra points if it’s a baby.	5
20	These individuals form Bhutan’s all-night choir. They often roam in gangs.	Give one of these individuals a nice biscuit	6
TOTALS				