

YIDDD: Youth Rep Survey

Name: Gihem Singh Ghalley

Date: January 3, 2014

Define the word "citizenship".

A person who belongs to a particular country or nation is called a citizenship.

What makes a citizen "effective" in a democracy?

→ A citizen has an effective role in a democracy because in directly or indirectly we citizens are making nation in the sense where we elect the representative.

Would you classify yourself as someone who has a strong sense of civic responsibility? Why or why not?

→ Yes, because I am kind and integrity person or a kind citizen who can really work for the development of nation.

What are the ways young people can bring change?

→ There are many ways where young people can bring change because young people of this present world are really integrity people.
→ Active involvement of youth in every activities.

On a scale of 1-10 (1=poor, 10=excellent), how would you rate your communication skills? Please explain why.

→ I simply give my attention in every activities where I can encourage youth to fight for the better development.